

2010 Southern Circuit High Point Awards

The Southern States, Deep South, Central States, Sooner State, Southwest, and Camino Real/Lone Star clubs are excited to announce a southern regional high point program called the "Southern Circuit". This will be year end high point awards to work towards as you attend these club sponsored shows during 2010. Check out the list to see which awards YOU want to shoot for in 2010.

1. Breeding Stallion
2. Breeding Mare
3. Luxury Gelding
4. Open Performance Horse
5. Amateur Performance Gelding
6. Amateur Performance Mare
7. Amateur Performance Stallion

All of the preceding classes will be calculated just like they are at the national level.

8. Gait – includes the regular qualifying gait classes and best gaited horse of show. As in the Camino Real's case includes the regular gait classes, champions, and champion of champions.
9. Bozal – includes the regular bozal classes and best bozal horse of show. Does not include bozal gait and bozal performance.
10. Versatility Horse – includes the classes that the regional show denotes as qualifying for their own versatility type award. Only the top 5 placings of the horse will count at each show toward the year end high point.
11. Junior High Point 12 and under – only junior classes count from each show
12. Junior High Point 13 to 17 – only junior classes count from each show
If budget allows the next two juniors that attend the most shows (and ride in the complete junior division) will receive a participation award.
13. Novice Rider – includes the novice division, AOTR division, and all other classes that qualify for championships. Championships, reserves, and champion of champions will also apply. Excludes versatility classes. The top 5 placings of the rider will count at each show.
14. Amateur Owner Rider – includes the AOTR division and all other classes that qualify for championships. Championships, reserves, and champion of champions will also apply. Excludes versatility classes and novice division classes. The top 5 placings of the rider will count at each show.
15. Owner Rider – includes all classes that are owner ridden including AOTR division and all other classes that qualify for championships. Championships, reserves, and champion of championship will also apply. Excludes versatility and novice division classes.
