CONDUCT

Each exhibitor will display his/her horse in the most natural way possible and maintain his/her horse in a suitable manner. Exhibitors shall at all times take whatever steps necessary to protect themselves, their horse, and the viewing public. No smoking in the barn or arena will be allowed. All dogs must be on leash at all times. Any person disregarding these requirements may be immediately asked to leave the Show facilities by authority of the Show Management. No person will be allowed to enter the arena except the exhibitors, the Judge, the Ring Steward, and Attendants. Attendants will not be permitted to enter the arena unless summoned by the Judge. All attendants in charge of horses will be subject to orders of the Show Manager. All attendants must be suitably attired in whites and neatly dressed when entering the ring. The Management, at its discretion, may bar any person or exhibitor from entering the ring if not suitably presented to appear before the public. It is an infraction of the class rules to commit any act or to make any remarks during the Show that are considered offensive or made with the intent of influencing the judging; any exhibitor may be barred from the show for this offense. Further, no exhibitor, unless he/she has obtained permission from the Show Management, may arrange an appointment with the Judge. Exhibitors are warned that any act of disobedience or discourtesy to officials on the part of any owner, rider, handler, or member of the family of persons participating in the show may disqualify them or their horse from adjudication. The Management reserves the right to remove an owner, rider, or handler from the show without being liable for compensation or damages.

JUDGE'S AUTHORITY

The Judge shall have the authority to place any horse in whatever position in a class he thinks the merits of the horse justifies. The Judge shall award prizes in order, starting with 1st and may not vacate places. This applies whether there are one or more entries in a class. If there are more entries of merit in a class than there are prizes offered, the Judge has the right to award any number of honorable mentions. The Judge has the right to make favorable comments on the PA system about the horses presented before him, but shall make no negative comments. The Judge has the option of riding any horse entered under saddle. Entrants accept that their horse may be ridden by the Judge who will not be held responsible for any injury which the horse may sustain during this time. Likewise, the Owner will not be held responsible for any injury which the Judge may suffer resulting from his decision to ride a horse

HEALTH REGULATIONS

The State of Tennessee requires that all horses MUST have a Negative Coggins Test for EIA within the past 12 months. Registration papers and Negative Coggins papers must be presented to the Show Secretary. NO EXCEPTIONS.

STABLING

The Calsonic Arena offers 1700 permanent 12 x 12 stalls which will be assigned on a first come first served basis. Bedding is shavings and must be purchased at the show facility. Arrangements for early arrivals must be made in advance by calling the SSPHC at (352) 302-9402 or the Show Secretary at (904) 879-4084

MEMBERSHIP and REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS

Horses registered with the NAPHA, the former PPHRNA & AAOBPPH, the ANCPCPP or the Canadian Registry; are eligible to enter this Show. Copy of Registration papers for each horse MUST accompany entries.

Registration and Proof of Ownership***

If your registration papers do not have your name on them or if you are leasing a horse, you MUST provide proof of ownership or authorization to show or we cannot allow you to exhibit that horse at this Show.

RULES & REGULATIONS

Everything is being done to conduct this Show on the highest possible level and for the pleasure of the exhibitors and spectators. The best adjudicating officials to be found have been selected and they will place awards on the horse as they see them presented in the ring, without regard for previous records or performances. The Southern States Peruvian Horse Club is desirous of fair treatment for all exhibitors and in return ask for the cooperation of all in helping to make this Show a successful and enjoyable event. Participants need to know the NAPHA Bylaws, Book of Peruvian Horse Showing, Peruvian Horse breed standard, and the NAPHA Code of Ethics. These are available from NAPHA. All showing procedures and judging percentages, as well as definitions, class description, description of gait and attire, rules and regulations, conduct and ethics, and conditions for the Show are described in the above named publications. All exhibitors, handlers, riders and other persons participating in this Show are responsible for a thorough knowledge of ALL rules and regulations.
